Criteria	A: Exceeds Expectations	B: Meets Expectations	C: Below Expectation	D: Unacceptable
Provide best practice on how in instructors promote effective feedback among students	Provided three or more best practices from own experience and the resources. Provided examples from external resources.	Provided three best practices from own experience and the resources.	Provided minimum (one) best practice from the resources	Did not list any best practices
Reference to a previous feedback to a peer. Evaluate its effectiveness and provided rational	Described a previous post, analyzed the positive and negatives of the feedback. Presented suggestions to overcome the negatives and provided rational. Supported answers with course resources and external resources.	Described a previous post, analyzed the positive and negatives of the feedback. Presented suggestions to overcome the negatives and provided rational. Supported answers with course resources.	Described a previous post, analyzed the positive and negatives of the feedback. Presented suggestions to overcome the negatives.	Described a previous post, and did not analyze the post with no evidence of negatives or positives and no suggestions.
Written expression and formatting	No major grammatical or technical errors; effective use of expressions and clear ideas; accurate crediting to resources from course readings, external and web resources (Walden University, 2013). Incorporated all elements of APA formatting throughout the post.	Few, if any, No major grammatical or technical errors; ideas and expressions are clear and organized effectively; few, if any, errors in crediting resources from course reading. (Walden University, 2013). Effective use of APA formatting.	Few No major grammatical or technical errors; ideas and expression are somewhat clear and with minimal organization; minimal use of credits to resources and course readings (Walden University, 2013) Incorporated basics of APA formatting.	Many No major grammatical or technical errors; ideas and expressions are not well organized and contain many errors; no credits for resources used from the web and readings (Walden University, 2013) Did incorporate APA formatting.